Parent Previews for 2016-17

Join us for a Parent Preview and learn more about Capistrano Unified School District’s Transitional Kindergarten through Eighth Grade Independent Study Options

Capistrano Virtual and Capistrano Home School offer:

Credentialed Teachers
- Students are assigned a highly-qualified CUSD teacher to support their education.

Access to CUSD School of Residence
- Elementary school students may participate in art and/or music classes at their neighborhood school.
- Middle school students may take up to two classes on their middle school campus.

Testing and Assessment
- All required State and district tests are administered at the school office. Student progress is continually monitored through a variety of assessments.

Workshops, Excursions and Other Activities
- Optional workshops are available throughout the year. Elementary workshops vary each week and cover a variety of subject areas and themes. Middle school workshops are course-specific and complement the work students are completing online or at home.
- Optional excursions are offered throughout the school year to enhance the curriculum.
- Fun activities are scheduled at the school and in the community so that students have additional opportunities to interact with teachers and peers.
